BEEVILLE MAIN STREET

SPOOK-TACULUOS SHOEBOX PARADE

Beeville Main Street is seeking civic organizations, groups or individuals and businesses to participate in the virtual Halloween parade. Our annual downtown Halloween Block Party is just not feasible this year due to social distancing. This virtual Halloween parade will be a recorded parade and posted on Halloween day.

Get creative and use materials from home to build a shoebox float to submit for the parade. See a sample at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RSr3HbeUkwk> (Edwardsville Park & Rec). This a great way to educate & promote your business or organization. Shoebox floats should be decorated in Fall or Halloween theme.

The Spook-taculous Shoebox Parade will premiere on Facebook October 31, 2020 showcasing the float entries. For applications or more information at www.cityofbeevillemainstreet.com.

$20 ON THE 20TH

What is it and why? Spend $20 on the 20th of every month at a local Beeville business. This could be for a local service, retail store, or restaurant. You're encouraged to order online only from a local business on this day. Shop for some gifts, take the family dinner, or have your car detailed. Not only does this act show appreciation to our local merchants but it strengthens the local economy. There are a few advantages to shopping small. The service is more personal, the community receives more support and let's not forget, immediate gratification.

The "Spend $20 on the 20th" campaign is just a good monthly reminder for folks to support the "mom & pop" shops in Beeville. This is a positive shift in our normal spending and an investment in our community.

BCHS CHRISTMAS TREE FOREST

The Bee County Historical Society is elated to host the 10th Annual Christmas Tree Forest this holiday season. The McClanahan House is the oldest business structure in Beeville. The Christmas Tree Forest helps to build funds to support the house and to educate the community on Beeville history.

Sign up your organization, business, or family to decorate a Christmas tree. All decorated trees are entered into a contest for best decorated tree. During tours of the House, trees can be voted on for a $1 each vote. Tours of the House are from December 1st-15th. The McClanahan House also seeks volunteers for the tours and holiday decorating and attractions. For more information, contact BCHS at 361-362-7062 or beecountyhistoricalsociety@gmail.com. Applications are available at Main Street Office or at www.cityofbeevillemainstreet.com.
